

D211 POST: PHS DRAMA CLUB TO PRESENT STUDENT-WRITTEN PLAY

For the second consecutive year, the Palatine High School Drama Club will present an all student-produced play for children. This year's play, "The Wizard of Oz: Dorothy's Return," will be performed May 5, in the school's student cafeteria. The event will include activities beginning at 10:30 a.m. with the play at 11:30. Tickets are available at a cost of $3 for children and free for adults.

"Dorothy's Return," is a one act play written by PHS seniors Sarah Angel and Dane Roberts which won honorable mention in the dramatics category at the very competitive Harper College writing contest. This production will be directed by seniors Grace Matthews and Joshua Davis.

During the activity portion of the morning, the drama club will be hosting a bake sale and conducting a raffle of many items donated by area businesses a one-hour character visit from Kids Kustom Parties and a three-month family membership from the Buehler YMCA.
