SHS marching band recently returned from performing in Florida.

The Schaumburg High School band just completed a tour that included stops in Orlando and Tampa, Florida. They had seven performances in six days while on the road.

The marching band performed a parade in the Magic Kingdom at Walt Disney World in Orlando, and then traveled to Tampa where the jazz band and wind symphony competed. The wind symphony was awarded second place in the competition.

The marching band also performed in the Outback Bowl Parade on New Year's Eve in Tampa's Ybor City to an electric crowd. They were also awarded second place in competition there. To finish the trip, the marching band and 10 other high school bands from around the country performed the Outback Bowl halftime show at in front of a crowd of 60,000 and an ESPN audience on New Year's Day.
